RCRC Welcomes Two Legislative Advocates

SACRAMENTO, CA – April 27, 2016 – The Rural County Representatives of California (RCRC) announced today the addition of two Legislative Advocates to its governmental affairs team. Mary-Ann Warmerdam has rejoined RCRC to cover agriculture, water, and other resource-related issues, and Tracy Rhine has joined the team to cover land use, health and human services, telecommunications, and overall infrastructure issues. Warmerdam and Rhine join the existing RCRC governmental affairs staff in advocating on behalf of RCRC’s 35 rural California member counties.

“We are excited to welcome Mary-Ann and Tracy to our team, and to the county family,” said Greg Norton, RCRC President and CEO. “Their individual skillsets, experience, and passion will serve our member counties well.”

Warmerdam previously worked for RCRC in 2003, and brings a wealth of legislative and regulatory affairs experience to her new role from both the state and federal levels. Warmerdam most recently served as Regulatory Affairs Leader for The Clorox Company.

Prior to joining RCRC, Rhine held several positions with the Department of Consumer Affairs, most recently serving as Chief Deputy Director. Rhine has also worked in the Legislature both as a Member consultant with the Speaker’s Office of Member Services, and as a Committee Consultant with the Assembly Committee on Business and Professions.
