The Pressure is On to Move Transportation Legislation

Several Central Valley County Supervisors participated today in a Fresno County press conference conducted by Assembly Speaker Toni Atkins—the third in her series of events to draw attention to the poor condition of many roads, highways and bridges in California.

Legislative Deadline Looms--Much Work Still To Do!

The final weeks of any given legislative session are notoriously frenetic. The Capitol begins to buzz into late night sessions where deals long in the making are discarded, brand new legislation is introduced through the “gut and amend” process, and major reforms are drafted and voted on in mere days. This year is shaping up to be no exception with legislative leadership shake-ups and two special sessions on transportation and healthcare still moving forward.

CSAC Seeks Comments on DOL Proposed Rulemaking on FLSA Overtime Exemptions
