Rural California Leaders Raise $25,000 for Sierra County Charities

SACRAMENTO, CA – October 8, 2015 – The Rural County Representatives of California (RCRC) announced today that rural leaders from across the state, including locally elected officials, business leaders, and others, raised more than $25,000 for six Sierra County charities at RCRC's 2015 Annual Meeting held late last month in El Dorado County. The funds will assist a multitude of countywide resource providers continue to serve the residents of Sierra County.

"I am overwhelmed by the generosity of my rural colleagues and sponsors of RCRC's 2015 Annual Meeting," said RCRC Chair and Sierra County Supervisor Lee Adams. "These funds will go a long way in serving the residents of Sierra County, and I am honored to be part of such a charitable organization and group of individuals."

RCRC's Annual Meeting concludes with a Basket Raffle Dinner in which a county-themed basket is raffled off from each member county. The proceeds from the Basket Raffle Dinner are donated to the RCRC Chair's charity/charities of choice. The charities selected this year include the Sierra County Historical Society (photo), the Sierra County Animal Relief Fund (photo), Golden Rays Senior Citizens of Sierra County (photo), Incorporated Senior Citizens of Sierra County (photo), the Downieville Lions Club (photo), and the Loyalton Rotary (photo). Each Sierra County organization received a check for $4,170.00.
