

The CSAC Bulletin

HomeCSAC NewsPolicy & Legislative ReportsPast IssuesCSAC BlogCalendar of Events

Friday, January 22, 2016 The CSAC Bulletin

Top Stories

Governor's State of the State: "One Way or Another, the Roads Must be Fixed."

Governor Jerry Brown put one of CSAC's highest legislative priorities front and center this week in his brief but wide-ranging state of the state address. "Ideology and politics stand in the way, but one way or another the roads must be fixed."

From Our Policy Sections

Don't miss these important items in our policy sections.

CSAC News

CSAC Recognized as Employer of the Year by Women's Transportation Seminar

CSAC has long enjoyed a reputation as a great place to work. The culture and environment are very supportive of gender and ethnic balance. Now, CSAC is the proud recipient of the "Employer of the Year" award, presented by the Sacramento Chapter of the Women's Transportation Seminar.

CSAC Institute Opens Fourth Campus

The CSAC Institute for Excellence in County Government officially expanded to its fourth campus this week when it held its inaugural class in Contra Costa County.

From Our Blog: Psychological Effects of California's Long-Term Drought

Imagine you are sitting on the cusp of an historic event – one that is unfolding slowly but with mighty force, and one that will last well past your lifetime. Imagine you have people in your communities who are desperately trying to tell you about these changes, and what they have to say is numbing, impossible to embrace. This is the story of climate change in 2016 – and with it, California's long-term drought.

Current Job Openings

Policy & Legislative Reports

Administration of JusticeAgriculture, Environment and Natural ResourcesEmployee RelationsHealth and Human ServicesHousing, Land Use and TransportationCSAC Finance CorporationNACoThe CSAC Institute

Links

Print Friendly Version

Follow CSAC

